

October included learning all about Harvest and Autumn. We got to taste different breads after reading about The Little Red Hen and made our very own soup! We have also really progressed with our phonics and have begun to dive deeper into the world of Maths! We are very good at comparing amounts now 😊