

We said Hello to December this month and that meant one thing – Christmas! We worked so hard each week to practise our lines and songs for our very first Nativity performance. At the end of the term, we got to perform it for the whole school and our parents! We have also continued to work hard on our fine motor skills and build strong fingers. It has been a great month.